NEWS FROM THE NORTH. Chipklang. From Chinkiang; we leave, that the house Mr Potts was broken into on the 12th inst. that the property of some of the Chinese servar to was extracted.

We are also informed of the digging of a large consl on the South Bank, just above the British Concession. This is intended for the shelter of Native craft from the North winds when the proclamation ordering them to quit the North side chall be enforced; the water being tar too deep to admit of their anchoring in tiers, as is generally their custom. The Authorities seem to be going to work in real earnest, and have about 2,000 men almost constantly digging. The work however gannot be priperly completed under two years, although it will be ready for one in about another month. The idea is to councot Nankin with Chinout the canal which already exists between these two places. The authorities at Nanking have issued an edict taking off all duties from silks &c., weven thele for five years. Already this has produced an effect, not less than ! 2,500 silk looms along having been established also there are said to be some six; or seven hundred extra home at work. The number of Junks on the North Bank has also increased in a marvelous degree, even within the last two months.
